PREFACE

It collapsed under the weight of its own contradictions.

What do I care. I have my websites where I can do anything, nothing I need to change on what is already published for the Legal Ombudsman is dealing with all matters that require the legalities to be checked in the complaint against Mr Forz Khan, barrister. So the Court of Central London assessing E35YM660 is paralysed. I am a member of the Conservative and Unionist Party. I can raise questions in the Conservative Policy Forum of the Party as and when I need when the Elections are over. I have a Party that I would vote for in the Conservative and Unionist Party so that my travel direction is clear. The TCLP-UK is a Republican Party. But it is not yet:

For Immediate Ruling

Your Honour

The Legal Ombudsman is dragging its heels on the attached clarification that I provided to justify the Claim that there is a concerted conspiracy against the Conservative Libertarian Party of the United Kingdom (TCLP-UK) to prevent its due process of filing an Amendment to the Constitution of the United Kingdom.

Dear Sirs

1. This matter is a complaint against Mr Forz Khan barrister, for he has been negligent in not representing my concerns to the Petition Committee of Parliament as attached
 FrHOCPetitionsCommittee(SubmitagainNewCommitteExaminesafterElection)29May2024.docx
 that:

"Please let me know if I need to resubmit it or the Petitions Committee can simply reinstate the original version from its Archive, now that you have received my further clarifications to try and meet the desired standards as judged by the Committee":

Given that the Parliament had not dissolved at the moment that Ms Monika sent me the email this morning, it was the responsibility of the present Committee to analyse the correspondence and leave a note on the issue of Standards for the Next Parliament's Committee to act upon and informing me of its decision, not send me on wild goose chase as it has done.

It is erroneous for Parliament to state that Petitions at other organisations like 'Change' and '38 Degrees' wherein petitions are lodged for the explicit consideration of the House of Commons and the House of Lords are not entertained by the Public Administration and Constitutional Affairs Select Committee which thereby restricts itself to the judgment of the Petitions Committee in Parliament when 5 signatures and seemingly 21/10000 signatures are obtained from sponsors of the petitioner, with no right to appeal. That is not open government as Parliament claims.

2. Mr Forz Khan should without wasting one moment represent this to Monika of the Petitions Committee, for it has erred in law in arriving at its decision.

Yours sincerely

Legal Ombudsman

Thank you for your email

We are currently dealing with a high volume of enquiries.

If you already have a case with us, we will add your email to the file. A colleague will be in touch with you just as soon as they review your email.

If you are contacting us for the first time about a complaint, please be aware that it may take around 12 weeks before you hear from us, and at that stage, we may need to ask you for more information. We thank you for your patience and would like to reassure you that our teams are working very hard to review and respond to your email as quickly as possible.

Once we have confirmed that we have all the information we need, we will write to you to let you know that we have passed your case for formal assessment by an investigator.

Please be aware that there is a considerable wait for a case to be assessed by an investigator, which varies depending on the complexity of the case. More information about the wait times will be included in the letter we send to you at the time the case is added to a queue and can also be found on our website.

If you have concerns about the wait times and feel they may detrimentally impact on you or your case, for example, because of a financial hardship or serious health concern, please let us know.

Have you complained to your service provider?

We can only investigate a complaint once the service provider has had the chance to investigate it and respond. This means you need to make a formal complaint to them first. You can find further information on our website about how to complain to your service provider, including a template complaint letter.

How to complain to us

If you have already complained to your service provider and have not received a satisfactory response, then we might be able to help. The easiest way to check if we can help you is to use our complaint checker tool on our website. Alternatively, you can send us a completed complaint form, which is available to download from our website.

We will need your completed complaint form, along with a copy of your complaint to the service provider and copies of any responses you have received from them. Please only send us copies and not original documents.

You should be aware that we are also unable to accept documents from an online document storage facility such as Dropbox.

Do not send us any other information until we request it.

If you need to write to us, our address is:

Legal Ombudsman
PO Box 6167
SLOUGH
SL1 0EH

Our telephone number is 0300 555 0333. We are open from 9am to 4pm from Monday to Friday. Calls may be recorded and used for training and monitoring purposes.

Have we let you know we have passed your case for assessment?

If we have already let you know your case is awaiting assessment by an investigator, you do not need to do anything further at this stage. An investigator will contact you when they start working on the complaint. Please note that you may be waiting a considerable time before your case will be passed to an investigator. The letter we have sent to you should provide you with more specific information about these timescales. We also aim update you every three months.

Supporting you in making a complaint

You can find out more about how we work and how we can help you by visiting our website (www.legalombudsman.org.uk). Here you will find a copy of our complaint form and information about how to complain, along with useful factsheets.

We are committed to making sure the way we work does not put you at a disadvantage so in addition to our legal duty to provide reasonable adjustments for disabled people, if you need any help or support, please tell us about it and we will do our best to meet your needs. We also understand that your circumstances might change, along with the support that you need, so please let us know at any time and we will consider your request.

Dear Sirs

1. This matter is a complaint against Mr Forz Khan barrister, for he has been negligent in not representing my concerns to the Petition Committee of Parliament as attached
FrHOCPetitionsCommittee(SubmitagainNewCommitteExaminesafterElection)29May2024.docx
that:

"Please let me know if I need to resubmit it or the Petitions Committee can simply reinstate the original version from its Archive, now that you have received my further clarifications to try and meet the desired standards as judged by the Committee":

Given that the Parliament had not dissolved at the moment that Ms Monika sent me the email this morning, it was the responsibility of the present Committee to analyse the correspondence and leave a note on the issue of Standards for the Next Parliament's Committee to act upon and informing me of its decision, not send me on wild goose chase as it has done.

(b)

It is erroneous for Parliament to state that Petitions at other organisations like 'Change' and '38 Degrees' wherein petitions are lodged for the explicit consideration of the House of Commons and the House of Lords are not entertained by the Public Administration and Constitutional Affairs Select Committee which thereby restricts itself to the judgment of the Petitions Committee in Parliament when 5 signatures and seemingly 21/10000 signatures are obtained from sponsors of the petitioner, with no right to appeal. That is not open government as Parliament claims.

2. Mr Forz Khan should without wasting one moment represent this to Monika of the Petitions Committee, for it has erred in law in arriving at its decision.

Yours sincerely

Legal Ombudsman

Thank you for your email

We are currently dealing with a high volume of enquiries.

If you already have a case with us, we will add your email to the file. A colleague will be in touch with you just as soon as they review your email.

If you are contacting us for the first time about a complaint, please be aware that it may take around 12 weeks before you hear from us, and at that stage, we may need to ask you for more information. We thank you for your patience and would like to reassure you that our teams are working very hard to review and respond to your email as quickly as possible.

Once we have confirmed that we have all the information we need, we will write to you to let you know that we have passed your case for formal assessment by an investigator.

Please be aware that there is a considerable wait for a case to be assessed by an investigator, which varies depending on the complexity of the case. More information about the wait times will be included in the letter we send to you at the time the case is added to a queue and can also be found on our website.

If you have concerns about the wait times and feel they may detrimentally impact on you or your case, for example, because of a financial hardship or serious health concern, please let us know.

Have you complained to your service provider?

We can only investigate a complaint once the service provider has had the chance to investigate it and respond. This means you need to make a formal complaint to them first. You can find further information on our website about how to complain to your service provider, including a template complaint letter.

How to complain to us

If you have already complained to your service provider and have not received a satisfactory response, then we might be able to help. The easiest way to check if we can help you is to use our complaint checker tool on our website. Alternatively, you can send us a completed complaint form, which is available to download from our website.

We will need your completed complaint form, along with a copy of your complaint to the service provider and copies of any responses you have received from them. Please only send us copies and not original documents.

You should be aware that we are also unable to accept documents from an online document storage facility such as Dropbox.

Do not send us any other information until we request it.

If you need to write to us, our address is:

Legal Ombudsman

PO Box 6167

SLOUGH

SL1 0EH

Our telephone number is 0300 555 0333. We are open from 9am to 4pm from Monday to Friday. Calls may be recorded and used for training and monitoring purposes.

Have we let you know we have passed your case for assessment?

If we have already let you know your case is awaiting assessment by an investigator, you do not need to do anything further at this stage. An investigator will contact you when they start working on the complaint. Please note that you may be waiting a considerable time before your case will be passed to an investigator. The letter we have sent to you should provide you with more specific information about these timescales. We also aim update you every three months.

Supporting you in making a complaint

You can find out more about how we work and how we can help you by visiting our website (www.legalombudsman.org.uk). Here you will find a copy of our complaint form and information about how to complain, along with useful factsheets.

We are committed to making sure the way we work does not put you at a disadvantage so in addition to our legal duty to provide reasonable adjustments for disabled people, if you need any help or support, please tell us about it and we will do our best to meet your needs. We also understand that your circumstances might change, along with the support that you need, so please let us know at any time and we will consider your request.

Dear Membership at Conservative Party

1. As you are no doubt aware I formed my own Party over the past 3 years entitled The Conservative Libertarian Party of the United Kingdom (TCLP-UK) that is not at present accredited with the Electoral Commission nor would I wish it to be within my lifetime) but it is a legally approved Republican Party in the sense that it wishes profound changes of amendment to the Constitution of the United Kingdom, the legal hurdles surmounted today as linked here: <https://www.thelibertariandemocrats.com/forum/diary-of-the-author/29-may-2024-14-09-pm-uk-time> 29 May 2024, 14.09 pm (UK-Time) | LibertarianDemocracy

No Immediate Ruling as in the application means:

2. I also love the Conservative and Unionist Party, and would like to retain this membership and invite similar minded Conservatives to me to form a sub-group within the Conservative and Unionist Party. I attempted to clarify this in my communication under your Ticket:

Your Membership Query : Fw: You've set up a Direct Debit #MS00001378

3. I have yet to receive an official response to the proposal so that the Direct Debit mandate that you wish to implement on 3 June 2024 is somewhat premature.

4. Please let me know how you wish to proceed. I will always be voting and donating to the Conservative and Unionist Party as I did yesterday evening attached:FrConservativeParty(Thank you for your Donation)28May2024.docx.

Legal Ombudsman

Thank you for your email

We are currently dealing with a high volume of enquiries.

If you already have a case with us, we will add your email to the file. A colleague will be in touch with you just as soon as they review your email.

If you are contacting us for the first time about a complaint, please be aware that it may take around 12 weeks before you hear from us, and at that stage, we may need to ask you for more information. We thank you for your patience and would like to reassure you that our teams are working very hard to review and respond to your email as quickly as possible.

Once we have confirmed that we have all the information we need, we will write to you to let you know that we have passed your case for formal assessment by an investigator.

Please be aware that there is a considerable wait for a case to be assessed by an investigator, which varies depending on the complexity of the case. More information about the wait times will be included in the letter we send to you at the time the case is added to a queue and can also be found on our website.

If you have concerns about the wait times and feel they may detrimentally impact on you or your case, for example, because of a financial hardship or serious health concern, please let us know.

Have you complained to your service provider?

We can only investigate a complaint once the service provider has had the chance to investigate it and respond. This means you need to make a formal complaint to them first. You can find further information on our website about how to complain to your service provider, including a template complaint letter.

How to complain to us

If you have already complained to your service provider and have not received a satisfactory response, then we might be able to help. The easiest way to check if we can help you is to use our complaint checker tool on our website. Alternatively, you can send us a completed complaint form, which is available to download from our website.

We will need your completed complaint form, along with a copy of your complaint to the service provider and copies of any responses you have received from them. Please only send us copies and not original documents.

You should be aware that we are also unable to accept documents from an online document storage facility such as Dropbox.

Do not send us any other information until we request it.

If you need to write to us, our address is:

Legal Ombudsman
PO Box 6167
SLOUGH
SL1 0EH

Our telephone number is 0300 555 0333. We are open from 9am to 4pm from Monday to Friday. Calls may be recorded and used for training and monitoring purposes.

Have we let you know we have passed your case for assessment?

If we have already let you know your case is awaiting assessment by an investigator, you do not need to do anything further at this stage. An investigator will contact you when they start working on the complaint. Please note that you may be waiting a considerable time before your case will be passed to an investigator. The letter we have sent to you should provide you with more specific information about these timescales. We also aim update you every three months.

Supporting you in making a complaint

You can find out more about how we work and how we can help you by visiting our website (www.legalombudsman.org.uk). Here you will find a copy of our complaint form and information about how to complain, along with useful factsheets.

We are committed to making sure the way we work does not put you at a disadvantage so in addition to our legal duty to provide reasonable adjustments for disabled people, if you need any help or support, please tell us about it and we will do our best to meet your needs. We also understand that your circumstances might change, along with the support that you need, so please let us know at any time and we will consider your request.

If you are requesting personal data under Freedom of Information or the Environmental Information Regulations or would like a copy of personal data under Data Protection please email infosec@legalombudsman.org.uk

Dear Colleagues

The Complaint has now been resolved at 6.06 pm when my Mobile Phone rang from 07418 397637; so it is business as usual.

I am a now simply a Conservative and will freeze my TCLP-UK activities until the next Parliament appoints a new Petitions Committee and I can then resubmit my original petition with appropriate modifications which will take its due course until some outcome is reached on whether the Constitution of the United Kingdom can be amended or not.

Please effect the Direct Debit mandate now and withdraw £39 from the Barclays Account on 3 June 2024 as you advised me.

I look forward to confirmation accordingly.

Yours sincerely

Dear Sir/Madam

I am not at all satisfied with the Conservative and Unionist Party's response to my mountainous concerns. The Direct Debit mandate is accordingly faulty and cancelled immediately so that no money should be withdrawn from our Barclays Joint Account on 3 June 2024 and until the Complaint Resolution process is completed, as attached

Dear Membership at Conservative Party

1. As you are no doubt aware I formed my own Party over the past 3 years entitled The Conservative Libertarian Party of the United Kingdom (TCLP-UK) that is not at present accredited with the Electoral Commission nor would I wish it to be within my lifetime) but it is a legally approved Republican Party in the sense that it wishes profound changes of amendment to the Constitution of the United Kingdom, the legal hurdles surmounted today as linked here: <https://www.thelibertariandemocrats.com/forum/diary-of-the-author/29-may-2024-14-09-pm-uk-time> (link no longer available) 29 May 2024, 14.09 pm (UK-Time) | LibertarianDemocracy 29 May 2024, 14.09 pm (UK-Time) | LibertarianDemocracy
No Immediate Ruling as in the application means:

2. I also love the Conservative and Unionist Party, and would like to retain this membership and invite similar minded Conservatives to me to form a sub-group within the Conservative and Unionist Party. I attempted to clarify this in my communication under your Ticket:
Your Membership Query : Fw: You've set up a Direct Debit #MS00001378

3. I have yet to receive an official response to the proposal so that the Direct Debit mandate that you wish to implement on 3 June 2024 is somewhat premature.

4. Please let me know how you wish to proceed. I will always be voting and donating to the Conservative and Unionist Party as I did yesterday evening attached: FrConservativeParty(Thank you for your Donation)28May2024.docx.

Dear Petitions Committee

Following wide consultations over the past 72 hours concerning the petition that was withdrawn by The Conservative Libertarian Party of the United Kingdom as follows:

My petition:

Have an amended Constitution.

Institute a Select Committee Specially convened for the purpose as I have gone through all other processes of Parliament and it has not received a positive response.

To keep people better informed on who is in charge of procedures of the House of Commons and of the House of Lords, what the functions of the Consultant Psychiatrists, Chief Constables of Police Forces are and who are the officials against whom a citizen can successfully prosecute in civil and criminal courts of the United Kingdom.

Click this link to sign the petition:

I wish to take this matter further at the time that a new Petitions Committee is appointed by the next Parliament following the General Elections to the House of Commons on 4 July 2024.

In the meantime however the work of the TCLP-UK will continue in accordance with the Policy as detailed here: <https://www.theconservativelibertariansociety.com/about-1>

Should the Houses of Parliament have any objections to this work being undertaken, please let me know.

To

Liberal Democrats

With regard to the attached communication yesterday evening ToStandardsOfficerLiberal Democrats (Do I need to submit a new Form)29May2023, firstly I did not receive a quick enough answer on what the outcome of the English Appeals Panel was, and secondly Liberal Democrats did not give me the reason as to why a new Appeals process should take place.

I have therefore decided that in the South East of the country where I live we need to have a Conservative domination in the 4 July 2024 General Election because they get things done for the country and are very good at keeping members up-to-date with a Conservative Policy Forum facility for new ideas - please see confirmation of my membership of the Conservative and Unionist Party that I have received this morning below following my decision to rejoin the Conservative and Unionist Party on 27 May 2024 as attached: FrConservativeParty(Thank you for joiningMembershipNumber)27May2024.docx.

This decision of mine is final and I do not need to re-establish my reputation from the Defamation that the Liberal Democrats perpetrated on me in flagging my application on highly spurious grounds.

I will be voting and donating to the Conservative and Unionist Party going forward; as attached: BECOMING SIMPLY CONSERVATIVE-digital.pdf.

Revised the Policy and Constitution of the United Kingdom Proposed:

THE POLICY OF A WRITTEN CONSTITUTION FOR THE UNITED KINGDOM PROPOSED BY THE CONSERVATIVE LIBERTARIAN PARTY OF THE UNITED KINGDOM

(Working Draft: 11.12 am 30 May 2024)

Preamble

People need to know where they stand in relation to the government under which they live.

The ethos and principles of the Conservative Libertarian Society

(<https://theconservativelibertariansociety.com>)

The Conservative Libertarian Party of the United Kingdom (TCLP-UK) situated at <https://theconservativelibertarianpartyoftheunitedkingdom.com> is the political offshoot of the Movement 'The Conservative Libertarian Society' (TCLS) situated at <https://theconservativelibertarianpartyoftheunitedkingdom.com>. TCLP-UK is currently not an accredited political party registered with the Electoral Commission and has no members or officials apart from the Founder and Leader of the TCLS and the Party, Dr Shantanu Panigrahi.

The philosophy of TCLS and hence TCLP-UK is security for liberty and liberty for security. This is the essence of living. We need to be very careful indeed in making our decision on actions that we should take every moment of life by a thorough understanding of the laws of Nature, and taking opportunities to better ourselves materially and spiritually through the passage of time in a risk-averse attitude that conserves and builds the material and spiritual 'house' that we live in. This is the meaning of Environmental Sustainability. One step at a time and see which way the wind blows before jumping on to the next step to try and enhance one's prospects for self-preservation and the appropriate development of the family and the wider society that we are governed by to regulate and control our human activities. Being libertarian per se is not the objective of the personal or communal struggle. One cannot isolate oneself from wider humanity, for we cannot each individually do all of the things that we need to feed, clothe, house, study and develop our knowledge which is the fundamental basis of actions individually and collectively. We need like-minded people according to the saying birds of a feather flock together to create a Party of political activists who would argue their case and take part in democracy to influence changes to the society in a peaceful and totally non-violent manner; by persuasion of ones principles and belief-led mission to better ourselves in our mental development and better our chances of survival in a tough Nature that restricts our abilities to act selfishly and in greed for gathering in the natural resources for our own consumption from the Planet that we inhabit. This is the ethos of Conservative Libertarianism, and it is a secular conception, notwithstanding that on the balance of probability God is the Creator of the universe and Nature has a built-in Gaia mechanism of checks and balances that carves the path to the emergence of new races and species of life forms on Earth. It is therefore imperative that we focus only on taking the right decisions ourselves without resort to a higher authority, be that human or spiritual in being a Conservative Libertarian.

TCLP-UK believes that of paramount importance, the United Kingdom must have a Written Constitution on the structures of democratic and law enforcement institutions and a declaration on human rights.

TCLP-UK has learnt a lot through the Founder's travel journey that ideals of Truth, Justice and Democracy is not possible without structural changes to the Constitution of the United Kingdom or on how the present Constitution is interpreted by vested interests for corrupt purposes. The Party has experienced shortcomings in this regard and so campaigns for an amended Constitution through due process in the Houses of Parliament, primarily by instituting a Select Committee specially convened for the purpose because the Party had gone through all other processes of Parliament and Courts and it has not received a positive response for the much needed change. The objective of the Party is to develop a Constitution for the nation that keeps people well informed on who is in charge of procedures of the House of Commons and of the House of Lords, what the functions of the Consultant Psychiatrists, Chief Constables of Police Forces are and who are the officials of the State against whom a citizen can successfully prosecute in civil and criminal courts; amendments that will make people and institutions across the board accountable to the public to the fundamental principles of Truth, Justice and Democracy.

For these objectives of Society to be met TCLS and hence TCLP-UK foster a State composed of a Monarchical Ceremonial Presidency over the House of Lords, the Revision Chamber of Parliament that functions as in the traditional democratic institutions of the United Kingdom with the House of Commons elected by an electorate of 18-aged plus citizens up to the 85 years of age, this upper age limit being set by the determination that the productive capacity of individuals to contribute to society is limited to a time in terms of their age when their judgments become haphazard from senile day, dementia and Alzheimer's disorders of the physical and mental attributes of people. This would apply also to the Monarchical Ceremonial President as the figure-head Head of State, who should also further only remain in that position for a fixed reign of 15 years at a single stint following which his or her continuation in the role must be put to the electorate in a referendum when people have the opportunity to judge whether he or she has discharged his duties to the State to an acceptable standard. Within this ethos, Parliamentary decisions on enactment of laws are to be revised by the traditional process of peers in the House of Lords as currently in place with the scrutiny guided by ceremonial assent of the Royal President for which the Privy Council will be renamed as Royal Board with altered functions as an institutional chamber to direct the democratic processes of the House of Lords on behalf of the Ceremonial Royal President who will only sign on the dotted line for final endorsement. By making the House of Lords an elected chamber, it would be the second chamber whose decisions are final on Bills enacted at the House of Commons.

Thus, the House of Lords as an elected Chamber and can override the decisions of the Prime Minister in the House of Commons after the usual three revisions of legislation voted on in Lower Chamber goes to and fro until agreement is reached between the Prime Minister and the House of Lords.

The House of Commons will be political Parliament according to party-politics but the House of Lords will be apolitical. Being the Administration of Parliament all government Ministers will be appointed by the Prime Minister in the House of Commons and the Civil Service will be attached only to this Executive.

The present Privy Council with intersections with different elements of the State will therefore be abolished by it's Royal Board replacement as an independent body attached interfaced between the House of Lords and the Monarchical Ceremonial President; to the latter as an advisory institution to sign on the dotted line. The Royal Board will be responsible for the selection of candidates applying to stand independently in elections to the higher Chamber of Parliament. It will appoint 3 candidates in each of enlarged Constituency with the First past the post system of election. The House of Lords will have 150 peers.

Legislation in the House of Commons will therefore not be subjected to Royal Ceremonial scrutiny for the Monarchical speeches which will be replaced at both Houses by the respective Speaker elected in each House which will set out the Bills for debating in the next Session of Parliament; the Speakers thereby giving ceremonial assent to the Bills from the Executive first presented by the Prime Minister in the Lower Chamber implementing the policies of the Party that he or she represents following general elections. The House of Lords revision of Bills will be restricted to only those formulated in the House of Commons.

TCLP-UK will therefore reform of the House of Commons and the House of Lords as elected chambers of Parliament. The Executive will be appointed as Prime Minister by the elected political parties with the no Royal prerogative powers for government as Bills have to be agreed with the House of Lords the second elected chamber of Parliament. The Commons will remain the administration of government without being subjected to the daily oversight of the House of Lords and Royal Board headed by the Ceremonial Monarchical President except for the enactment of Bills voted for by Members of Parliament in the lower chamber. The Ceremonial President will solely appoint the members of the Royal Board, which will have 12 selected officials. This would be the only power of the Ceremonial President for the government of the nation.

The Prime Minister in the House of Commons and will write Speaker's Speech in the House of Commons with the Speaker delivering it from the Executive as ceremonial assent. The Commons will therefore not take directives of the Ceremonial Royal President. The House Lords who would be elected every 10 years whereas the House of Commons will have flexible 5-year terms with the Prime Minister not having the power to call a general election at any time without a vote in the chambers.

There will be devolution of political administration to local elected Councils and regional States under Federation as Scotland, Wales, Northern Ireland and England Overseas Dependencies and Territories such as the Falkland Islands. These territories will be free to make their own decisions on how their governments operate through votes in local referenda without having to seek approval from Westminster.

Rationale for Amendment to a Written Republican Constitution

TCLP-UK has on 17 May 2024 became a Republican Party, for reasons set out here:

<https://www.theconservativelibertariansociety.com/post/the-conservative-libertarian-party-of-the-united-kingdom-turns-republican> .

The government must serve the people, not the people serve the government.

The reason that there is no written Constitution in the United Kingdom is that Monarchists facilitate the Monarch to become Dictatorial from time to time in the course of history which will be fine if that is what the majority of the population actually wish but it should be explicitly documented into a Written Constitution. People are then fully informed on what to expect from their government.

The change from unwritten to a written Constitution will not enable the Head of State to discharge his or her duties secretly from behind the scenes away from the public eye. The role of the Constitutional Head of State should be hereditary from the existing Royal Family but Parliament's Select Committee for Public Administration and Constitutional Affairs (PACAS) will decide what it should be whether limited (Ceremonial) or unlimited powers. The composition of this Select Committee should be 24 members, 12 each from the House of Commons and House of Lords. Each chamber of Parliament must have an internal Vote on the individuals who are selected to represent this Select Committee.

The Constitution must clearly outline the relationship between the Ceremonial Head of State and the Parliament at both House of Commons and the House of Lords.

The Written Constitution should be put to a Yes/No referendum of the population initially; and if there is a Yes decision from the electorate to have a Written Constitution all subsequent amendments to the Constitution when these take place through Parliamentary approval first must go to another referendum.

The Written Constitution should be prepared by the Select Committee who will be charged with this role, and document prepared must be subjected to a vote in the House of Commons chamber and then in the House of Lords before going to referendum.

The Head of State should be known as the 'Lord/Lady President'.

The Speaker of the House of Commons will be solely responsible for all the technical proceedings of each Chamber, not the Lord/Lady President who will never enter these Chambers for ceremonial functions. The Royal Assent to the current outline of the Executive's work to the Lord/Lady President in the House of Chambers will therefore be abolished.

The amendment to the present unwritten Constitution of the United Kingdom will therefore obtain clarity on the functionality of the State so that government officials are made accountable to the public at large, as these will be available to Courts in a written Constitution. Right now the Security Services can perpetrate tyranny on the people and the citizen has no chance of success in attempting to litigate and prosecute the police in the courts. Similarly one cannot litigate or prosecute the Prime Minister for causing untold misery to individuals because he or she is protected by the force of a dictatorial Constitutional monarchy secretly operating through preventing people knowing the relationships between the Monarch and the Prime Minister, the Security Services incorporating the Police, the Civil and Criminal Courts of the State, and the regulatory authorities at the Legal Ombudsman, the Parliamentary and Health Service Ombudsman the Solicitors Regulation Authority, the Bar Standards Board and the Financial Services Ombudsman. These inter-relationships need to be identified and set in stone through a Written Constitution for which the PACA Select Committee will have responsibility to undertake the task outlined through this parliamentary petition from the public.

The national anthem will be rewritten along the lines of nations functions nationally and its devolved and dependent territories and objectives of the people in strengthening the nation.

Composition of the Houses of Commons and Lords

Thus, whereas the House of Commons would be a political chamber involving political parties, the House of Lords will be apolitical comprising of independent peers only and no hereditary peers.

The Royal Board will sift through applicants wishing to be Members of the Revision chamber on their qualifications which must be a minimum of Upper Second-Class Undergraduate degree in any discipline followed by 15 years of work experience. Thus the peers would be a minimum of 45 years of age and all-inclusive otherwise of differences in gender, race, religion, sexual orientation and marital status.

Mental Health

The Mental Health Institution should be incorporated within the Law Enforcement Process and subject to explicit and reformed basis upon which the Mental Health Act is operated without recourse to the Law that is presently constituted and operates on the basis of. Every decision of Consultant Psychiatrists and Mental Health professionals should be subjected to the Mental Health Tribunal before Sectioning of an individual takes place in the committal of the person to a mental hospital.

Department of Justice

The Civil and Criminal Courts will remain as the currently operate with the Crown Prosecution Service under a Department of Justice with the Supreme Court being solely the third level of civil and criminal proceedings under Appeal through the Court of Appeal brought to it by litigants and private prosecutions against all including the institutions of the State such as the Police and the rest of the Security Services such as M15/M16. The Courts must not interfere in the democratic process of the government in terms of day-to-day decisions and the enactment of laws.

Declaration of Human Rights

TCLP-UK will not join the European Union and will withdraw from the European Court of Human Rights. Instead the Constitution will include a Declaration on fundamental human rights of all citizens which will guide the House of Lords to scrutinise Bills of the Lower House that violate the principles of this Declaration.

Approved ePetition at the Parliament Website

In the absence of any of the current four political parties submitting these proposals to the due process of the House of Commons and the House of Lords despite detailed consultations, the only route identified by TCLP-UK is to submit an ePetition to the government and parliament for due consideration. TCLP-UK has implemented the following petition.

What do you want the government to do:

Have an amended Constitution.

Institute a Select Committee Specially convened for the purpose as I have gone through all other processes of Parliament and it has not received a positive response.

To keep people better informed on who is in charge of procedures of the House of Commons and of the House of Lords, what the functions of the Consultant Psychiatrists, Chief Constables of Police Forces are and who are the officials against whom a citizen can successfully prosecute in civil and criminal courts of the United Kingdom.

Click this link to sign the petition:

<https://petition.parliament.uk/petitions/662817/sponsors/new?token=5E2Eaduj6JGBY6S9rdVV>

If I get 5 signatures, Parliament would have to consider making the petition go live, and if it gets past this hurdle following which 21 signatures are required for an interim decision by Parliament to TCLP-UK on the Petition and 10,000 signatures would get a reply to TCLP-UK from Parliament expected to be the present PACAS.

TCLP-UK believes that think young people especially should sign the petition. Politics will always be in total shambles in the United Kingdom unless the Constitution is Amended.

Parliamentary Authorities for Queries from the Public

Parliament at both Houses will be accessible to the population for information and advice and directions on due process should there be concerns through petitions in the government and House of Commons website for open government. The email addresses should be as follows:

I have done my job following the phase of my life as a research scientist where I prophesied that I was to move on to higher things from the 'noddy' work of Animal Science laboratory and field experimental work. I feel that I have paid back to the United Kingdom for all the good things that I have benefitted from over 52 years. I feel that it has been a Constructive life, for I have in the end made peace with the State in declaring myself as 'Becoming simply Conservative.' This is the end of the struggle for the truth for me. I will acquiesce and not argue. The work is there for people to read and determine who I was that lived on this Earth.

I am a Member of the Conservative Party, no less. It is for the Conservative Party to take the work further if it so wishes. I sought truth and I found truth, the truth that 'Truth, Justice and Democracy' are the most important principles for mankind.

Dear Sirs

1. This matter is a complaint against Mr Forz Khan barrister, for he has been negligent in not representing my concerns to the Petition Committee of Parliament as attached FrHOCPetitionsCommittee(SubmitagainNewCommitteExaminesafterElection)29May2024.docx that:

"Please let me know if I need to resubmit it or the Petitions Committee can simply reinstate the original version from its Archive, now that you have received my further clarifications to try and meet the desired standards as judged by the Committee":

Given that the Parliament had not dissolved at the moment that Ms Monika sent me the email this morning, it was the responsibility of the present Committee to analyse the correspondence and leave a note on the issue of Standards for the Next Parliament's Committee to act upon and informing me of its decision, not send me on wild goose chase as it has done.

It is erroneous for Parliament to state that Petitions at other organisations like 'Change' and '38 Degrees' wherein petitions are lodged for the explicit consideration of the House of Commons and the House of Lords are not entertained by the Public Administration and Constitutional Affairs Select Committee which thereby restricts itself to the judgment of the Petitions Committee in Parliament when 5 signatures and seemingly 21/10000 signatures are obtained from sponsors of the petitioner, with no right to appeal. That is not open government as Parliament claims.

2. Mr Forz Khan should without wasting one moment represent this to Monika of the Petitions Committee, for it has erred in law in arriving at its decision.

Yours sincerely

Legal Ombudsman

Thank you for your email

We are currently dealing with a high volume of enquiries.

If you already have a case with us, we will add your email to the file. A colleague will be in touch with you just as soon as they review your email.

If you are contacting us for the first time about a complaint, please be aware that it may take around 12 weeks before you hear from us, and at that stage, we may need to ask you for more information. We thank you for your patience and would like to reassure you that our teams are working very hard to review and respond to your email as quickly as possible.

Once we have confirmed that we have all the information we need, we will write to you to let you know that we have passed your case for formal assessment by an investigator.

Please be aware that there is a considerable wait for a case to be assessed by an investigator, which varies depending on the complexity of the case. More information about the wait times will be included in the letter we send to you at the time the case is added to a queue and can also be found on our website.

If you have concerns about the wait times and feel they may detrimentally impact on you or your case, for example, because of a financial hardship or serious health concern, please let us know.

Have you complained to your service provider?

We can only investigate a complaint once the service provider has had the chance to investigate it and respond. This means you need to make a formal complaint to them first. You can find further information on our website about how to complain to your service provider, including a template complaint letter.

How to complain to us

If you have already complained to your service provider and have not received a satisfactory response, then we might be able to help. The easiest way to check if we can help you is to use our complaint checker tool on our website. Alternatively, you can send us a completed complaint form, which is available to download from our website.

We will need your completed complaint form, along with a copy of your complaint to the service provider and copies of any responses you have received from them. Please only send us copies and not original documents.

You should be aware that we are also unable to accept documents from an online document storage facility such as Dropbox.

Do not send us any other information until we request it.

Thank you for this clarification.

TCLP-UK will definitely submit its work on the Republican agenda with the expanded version of the original petition in June or July 2024 once the Petition website has been reopened to enable this due process that you have identified as being awful.

Could you tell me the number of words that the website limits a petitioner to and whether the link to our draft petition can be given instead?

Dear Chandler

I am a Republican Conservative because my conscience tells me three interrelated things. The first is the equality of all human beings in that no-one should be slave to monarchical dictatorship. The second is the God save His/Her Majesty national anthem because there is next to no evidence for it in terms of the Divine right of Kings/Queens to rule a country. The third is Democracy which is paramount aspect of equality. The fourth is Justice to as a human right in civil and criminal courts.

So I do not know if I will be acceptable as a volunteer.

Please advise me because traditions are cultural values that may be sacrosanct to the Conservative Party.

Since the PM called the election, my team has been monitoring Labour's ground operations – and what we've found is concerning.

Sign Up To Volunteer

It's not an email that I wanted to send. But you need to know the truth: Keir Starmer's left-wing activists are mobilised like never before.

Across our country, he has an army of volunteers working tirelessly to unseat our MPs.

So if we get complacent, we lose. Not just this election, but everything we've achieved together. This is where you come in.

Whether you've been to several of our Walking2Win Action Days, or none at all – I'm urgently asking you to get involved on the 1st June.

Sign Up To Volunteer

In a few weeks, Keir Starmer could be your Prime Minister.

His unfunded spending commitments mean that a Labour government will run out of money. Tax hikes. Pension raids. A higher deficit. These are the things Labour have done before. And always do.

When he's finished raiding your pocket, he'll scrap our Rwanda scheme – making Britain a magnet for every single illegal immigrant in Europe.

And he'll pass Angela Rayner's French-style union laws – crushing British businesses. Costing jobs.

That's what the future looks like if Labour win. That's why we need you to get involved this Saturday.

Find Campaigning Sessions Near Me

Shantanu, this election CAN be won. But we all have to play our part.

In fact, there's never been a more crucial time to register as a volunteer.

Thousands of volunteers will be out across the country. So why not have a look and join them?

Because together, we can stop Labour. And together, we can deliver the clear plan, bold action, and secure future our country deserves.

Yours,

Bradley

Dear Joanna

Thank you for this clarification.

TCLP-UK will definitely submit its work on the Republican agenda with the expanded version of the original petition in June or July 2024 once the Petition website has been reopened to enable this due process that you have identified as being awful.
 Could you tell me the number of words that the website limits a petitioner to and whether the link to our draft petition can be given instead?

Conservative Policy Forum Proceedings

Policy submission by:

Shantanu Panigrahi

Membership number: 530473072

Local Association: Gillingham and Rainham

Email address: shantanupanigrahi@yahoo.com

Policy Directions

Objective: Making the Constitution transparent

Problem: The population is not duly aware of the functionality of the Constitution of the United Kingdom and since this is a desirable need more general information for decision-making by the citizen is required.

What can be done?

Have an amended interpretation of the Constitution.

Institute a Select Committee Specially convened for the purpose as I have gone through all other processes of Parliament and it has not received a positive response.

To keep people better informed on who is in charge of procedures of the House of Commons and of the House of Lords, what the functions of the Consultant Psychiatrists, Chief Constables of Police Forces are and who are the officials against whom a citizen can successfully prosecute in civil and criminal courts of the United Kingdom

How do you measure the outputs:

The objectives will be met in terms of the attainment of Truth, Justice and Democracy across the board.

Prior work to achieve the target:

Conservative Libertarians formed a Society (TCLS) that submitted an ePetition to the government and parliament to meet these objectives. Click this link:

<https://petition.parliament.uk/petitions/662817/sponsors/new?token=5E2Eaduj6JGBY6S9rdVV>

Cost:

There is no cost involved that is foreseen.

Ultimate measure of success:

If the Public Administration and Constitutional Affairs Select Committee debate this issue that would be a step in the right direction.

How does this policy meet the Conservative and Unionist Party's Vision of government?

The ethos and principle of Conservatism is wholly in line with the policy to make the functioning of government transparent to the public.

Dear Chandler

I am a Republican Conservative because my conscience tells me four interrelated things. The first is the equality of all human beings in that no-one should be slave to monarchical dictatorship. The second is the God save His/Her Majesty national anthem because there is next to no evidence for it in terms of the Divine right of Kings/Queens to rule a country. The third is Democracy which is a paramount aspect of equality. The fourth is Justice to as a human right in civil and criminal courts.

So I do not know if I will be acceptable as a volunteer.

Please advise me because traditions are cultural values that may be sacrosanct to the Conservative Party.
